SEEKING DIVORCE.

Mrs. A. G. Vanderbilt Files Suit.

Action Is Taken Within an Hour After He Sails for Europe.

Union of Two of New York's Proudest Families Ends in Scandal.

No Doubt Among Friends That Statutory Grounds Are Alleged.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Within an hour after he had sailed for Europe today, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt was made the defendant in a suit filed with the Supreme Court by his wife, Ellen French Vanderbilt, who seeks an absolute divorce.

Had secrecy been wished, the action of counsel could not have been better timed. The offices of the County Clerk are closed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Only a few moments before that hour the comparing clerk received the papers. By the time he was through with them it was too late for the papers to be officially recorded today. They were placed in a safe and will be formally entered tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Vanderbilt's attorneys are Carter, Ladyard & Milburn. The Mauretania sailed at 3 o'clock and a few minutes before the papers were thrown off by Mr. Vanderbilt was seen by the reporters, to all of whom he expressed a decided disinclination to discuss his domestic affairs. He refused to say anything about his troubles with his wife.

STATUTORY ALLEGATIONS.
No doubt is entertained among those who have had occasion to follow the matrimonial adventures of Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt during the last few weeks that the suit for absolute divorce is based on the only ground which the laws of this State recognize as adultery.

It is understood a complaint was served on Mr. Vanderbilt on Monday and that he entered a general denial. Without such an answer, indicating at least the presumption that he intends to defend the suit, an order of reference making a secret trial of the issues possible, could not be had. A law passed some years ago makes it impossible to have secret trials of undetected divorce suits as had been the practice for years. But there need be no active concealment and Mr. Vanderbilt's rapid departure for Europe indicates there will be none.

Alfred had known Elsie French ever since the two were children. The girl had been his playmate and friend for years and it was while he was a student in Yale that Alfred decided he was in love with Elsie and would marry her. The boy's choice was fully approved by his father. He told Alfred that he would give his consent if the young man would agree to take a tour around the world before the marriage.

Alfred consented reluctantly. His party left New York July 6, 1899, and after visiting the Pacific Coast and the Alaskan glaciers, went to Japan, where the journey was checked by the news of Cornelius Vanderbilt's death. When the will of Cornelius Vanderbilt was opened it was found that he left $20,000,000 to his son, Alfred, while to his daughter Elsie he gave a share similar to that bequeathed to other heirs. These provisions were objected to by Cornelius and Alfred consented to a compromise by giving $5,000,000 to his eldest brother.

ELISE FRENCH'S FAMILY.
Mrs. Vanderbilt is Ellen French, daughter of the late Frances Ormond French, president of the Manhattan Trust Company, and director of many railroads. Her mother has been abroad for several years, but is returning for the wedding of her granddaughter, Miss Pauline Leroy French, and Samuel Wagstaff, to take place at Newport on May 5.

Elien, or as she was more generally known, Elsie, was married to Alfred Vanderbilt on January 11, 1901. A year later their only child, William Henry, was born. Mr. Vanderbilt had been regarded as the head of the family since the estrangement of his father, which followed the marriage of Cornelius, the eldest son, to Miss Grace Wilson. During the last year or so, Mr. Vanderbilt has spent much of his time abroad, but recently he returned from London where he plans to drive the coach Venture as a public coach this spring between London and Brighton. Later he is to be one of the judges at the International Horse Show at London, where his horses won many trophies last year.

Mr. Vanderbilt sailed at 3:15 o'clock this afternoon on the Canadian liner Mauretania, upon which his cousin, the Duchess of Marlborough, was also a passenger. The Duchess has been the guest lately of her mother, Mrs. O. H. Belmont. Just before the Mauretania left her pier, Mr. Vanderbilt declined to discuss the report that a separation from his wife was imminent. Half an hour later Mrs. Vanderbilt's wife of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who yesterday filed suit for divorce, the grounds not being yet made public. Mr. Vanderbilt sailed for Europe within an hour before the papers were filed. Mrs. Vanderbilt left her home at Oakland, near Newport, a week ago, taking with her to her brother's home all her private effects and her own retinue of servants. Since then society has been expecting some such announcement as came yesterday.

POPS REPUDIATE "PEERLESS ONE."

RESIST EFFORTS OF BRYANITES TO DELAY NOMINATIONS.

Conceded That Thomas E. Watson of Georgia Will Be Named for President—Two Candidates for Vice-President—Platform Committee Is Snowed Under.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
ST. LOUIS, April 1.—Friends of William J. Bryan today made earnest, but highly unsuccessful efforts to influence in his favor the action of the Populist National Convention, which will meet here tomorrow. The majority of the members of the People's party and the various reform organizations, which will participate in the convention, rebuffed the Bryan people at every turn. They also refused to classify Bryan as anything but a Democrat, who has no right to participate in the councils of the Populist party or to receive consideration at its hands.

Everywhere the Bryanites will carry the fight into the convention as a last resort. Their demand was for a postponement of the nomination of the convention, before placing a ticket in the field. They admitted that they are in a minority as compared to the Watson men, but claimed to have letters from Thomas E. Watson himself in which he expressed the opinion that it was unwise to hold the convention at so early a date. The Watson men positively refused to listen to any proposal for an adjournment.

Gen. Jacob S. Coxey of Mount Vernon, Ohio, has been decided upon for temporary chairman. For permanent chairman, Frank E. Richey of St. Louis has been decided upon. There seems to be no doubt that Thomas E. Watson of Georgia will be nominated for President. Judge Samuel W. Williams of Vincennes, Ind., and Frank E. Richey of St. Louis are the only men mentioned for Vice-President.

After the convention had been organized and committees appointed, an adjournment was taken until tomorrow afternoon, when the platform will be considered. The nomination of candidates will hardly take place before Friday.

It is doubtful if the resolutions committee of any political party was ever confronted by such a mass of planks as has been shovelled upon that which is preparing the platform for tomorrow. Every delegate seems to be loaded down with them, and they cover almost every conceivable subject, from the national currency down to a plan to prevent New York's "Four Hundred" from smuggling diamonds through the custom-house.

The platform will, however, be in essentials about as outlined last night. Present sentiment is against any declaration for or against prohibition.

MRS. M'CORMICK IS THREATENED BY REDS.

Daughter of John D. Rockefeller, Near Collapse Over Series of Letters from Anarchists Telling of Coming Peril—Prepares to Flee.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Harold M'Cormick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, the richest man in the world, is verging on nervous breakdown, and has prepared to depart hastily from the city, as a result of a series of threatening letters received by her from anarchists which have led her to believe that her life and those of her children are in peril.

Guards have been placed about the mansion at Bellevue place and Lake Shore drive. Servants and coachmen are being utilized as extra guards. Working in relays, they are watching pedestrians, and no one is permitted to enter the grounds without first being scrutinized.

As soon as possible Mrs. M'Cormick will leave for her father's home in Cleveland. The date is withheld, and even her maid is said to be ignorant of her intended departure. Fear is felt for the safety of Mrs. M'Cormick's children, who are with Mr. Rockefeller in the South. The

EVELYN AND THOMAS PUT OUT OF A CAFE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Evelyn Nesbit Thaw and E. R. Thomas were refused service at the Hotel Knickerbocker Monday night, and were practically put out of the hotel restaurant. Manager Reagan confirmed the story to your correspondent tonight, after Mrs. Thaw had said to him that she did not remember ever having been in the Knickerbocker.

"They came in here Monday night, and Evelyn was immediately recognized," said Mr. Reagan. "We don't want her patronage, and I decided that she could not be served. There was no trouble about it. None of the people in the dining-room knew that anything happened out of the ordinary." "When I recognized them, I called Mr. Thomas aside and told him plainly that we did not care to have them there. I asked him to tell her not to come to the hotel again, as we would never serve her. They were in the hotel scarcely ten minutes, leaving

STAR PART FOR EVELYN.

Two Young Chicago Authors and Producers Make Young Woman a Tempting Offer.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, the beautiful wife of Stanford White's slayer, will be given another chance to enter upon a stage career if she accepts an offer which will be made to her tomorrow in New York. Two young Chicago authors and producers, Will Hough and Frank Adams, are fostering the movement, and they are said to be backed by a number of capitalists, who foresee large profits in the venture.

The two authors have been in correspondence with Mrs. Thaw for some time, and have written a musical extravaganza in which she is played in the leading role. Whether Mrs. Thaw has accepted or declined a proposition to star in the play is not known. Mr. Adams acknowledged today, however, that a co-worker, Mr. Hough, had gone to New York to try to induce Evelyn to sign a contract.

The reports that the young woman was preparing to take up the stage again has met with the hearty disapproval of actors and actresses everywhere, who say it would result in a gigantic theatrical strike.

TRUE PHILANTHROPY.

PLAN GREAT AID TO CITIES' POOR.

SELF-SUPPORTING SETTLEMENTS TO BE ESTABLISHED.

Mrs. Quincy Adams Shaw, Daughter of Louis Agassiz and Wife of Boston's Richest Citizen, Gives Millions to Further Philanthropy Directed by Prof. Zuehlke.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
BOSTON, April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A sociological undertaking which is to exceed anything of the kind ever attempted in New England, if not in America, is being planned by Prof. Charles Zuehlke, who recently resigned his professorship of sociology at the University of Chicago, and Mrs. Quincy Adams Shaw, the famous philanthropist and wife of the richest citizen in Boston.

Both of these noted people have associated themselves in the work of social upliftment. This work will take the form of establishing self-supporting settlements in Boston and throughout Massachusetts, and already for this purpose $1,000,000 has been set aside by Mrs. Shaw, which amount is later to be increased to $2,000,000.

Mrs. Shaw is the daughter of the late Prof. Louis Agassiz and has devoted the greater part of her life to philanthropic work. Her enormous expenditures in this direction are made possible by her own large fortune, and the fact that her husband is also enormously wealthy.

ELEANOR ROBSON DENIES.

Says August Belmont Was Sick Before He Went to Dinner Given to Her by Shonts.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "It was just a dinner—that's all," that is the explanation given today by Eleanor Robson when asked for particulars of the dinner given in her honor last evening by Theodore F. Shonts, traction magnate of New York.

The fact that such a dinner had been given came out when August Belmont was taken ill at the banquet, and was hurried home in his private car.

The New York story is that Mr. Belmont was taken ill suddenly and mysteriously at the dinner given by Mr. Shonts for Miss Robson. Miss Robson declares that Mr. Belmont was ill when he came to Chicago, and that consequently he was not taken ill at the dinner, and that she is not responsible for anything at all about it.

Miss Robson will not say where the dinner was, nor when, nor who were there. "I don't know anything at all about it," she insisted. "There is not a word of truth in the story that Mr. Belmont was taken ill at a dinner Mr. Shonts gave for me."

GALE BRINGS COLD WAVE.

St. Paul Warned of Coming Drop in Temperature; Trains Blocked by Snow in North Dakota.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
ST. PAUL, April 1.—A terrific gale is blowing here today, and is bearing a cold wave down from the North, according to the United States Weather Bureau. The cold wave will cause a drop in temperature to about 16 deg. above zero. Very low temperatures prevailed today at most places in Manitoba and the Territories. It was 2 deg. below zero at Medicine Hat today, and 4 deg. below at Prince Albert.

A dispatch from Grand Forks, N. D., says: "A heavy snowstorm, accompanied by wind, caused delay to trains in North Dakota today. The east-bound Oriental Limited, on the Great Northern arrived four hours late. It was reported that the storm raged all the way from Great Falls, Mont. All the trains from the East were from half an hour to two hours late this morning."

NOTED BEAUTY AIDS POOR.

Clio Starr, Affected by Sight of Hundreds in Mining Camp Without Funds, Starts Subscription.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
DENVER, April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Clio Starr, once a famous Denver and Salt Lake beauty, arrived at Rawhide yesterday to inspect mining property in which she has become interested.

Noting the conditions existing among the hundreds who, without money, flocked to the new Eldorado, she urged the starting of a fund to relieve the hungry men and help to send them from the camp.

Threats Against the Texas Senator.

Campaign Manager Publishes Earnest Warning to Citizens of State.

Assassination Feared in Bitter Political Fight Over Primaries.

One Man Heard to Offer to Pay All Expenses of a Murderer.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

DALLAS (Tex.) April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The special primary election campaign to determine whether United States Senator Bailey shall be elected on May 3 as a delegate-at-large to the National Democratic Convention at Denver has become extremely bitter, and there are fears of bloodshed and perhaps a startling tragedy. Clarence Gurney, editor of the Fort Worth Record and State campaign manager for Senator Bailey, today prints in large bold type an earnest warning to the enemies of Senator Bailey. After reviewing the assassination of President Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley and the recent killing of W. D. Stevens by Koreans in San Francisco, the warning is introduced as follows:

"Circumstances which will not be recited in detail, and which need not be recited for the purpose of this expression, foreshadow developments in the pending political campaign which if not averted will disgrace Texas." Following this, the warning says, among other things:

OPEN THREATS.

"Within the last ten days two men have been heard to declare that Senator Bailey ought to be killed, and one of them in a public restaurant, in the hearing of several persons, said that he would be glad to pay the expenses of any man who would do the deed."

"Within this week it has been announced, whether upon authority or not we do not know, that men conspicuous in the opposition to Senator Bailey will go to places where he has announced his intention to make public addresses to publicly challenge him to debate, and if he declines will endeavor to engage the audience after he has finished."

GRAVEST DANGER.

"All reasoning men perfectly understand that shallow brains are easily influenced to undertake desperate deeds and that in the excitement and passion of a moment violence may develop and riot ensue. There is danger of the gravest kind if the leaders on both sides of this contest refuse to fall to control the passionate and desperate individuals who, in spite of the best efforts, attach themselves to any cause, and especially to any adventure that is hazardous or spectacular."

"It is impossible, perhaps, to prevent bitter speeches or to curb high feeling, but it is possible to control situations so as to forbid violent expressions and conduct, and to this end, from consideration of patriotism, State pride and social order, we admonish all concerned."

LESLIE CARTER NEAR DEATH.

His Official Position in Large Corporations Desired Vastly in Anticipation of His Early Death.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Leslie Carter today passed from the stage of the world's financial and commercial activities. Up to five months ago a leading factor in the affairs of Chicago and the West, he has been relieved at last of the important offices in the corporations he has served. His impending demise was announced by those who have authority to speak. After consulting with Mr. Carter, a physician, the directors of the Calumet and Chicago Canal and Dock Company reluctantly decided that position on the board and the presidency must be pronounced vacant.

Carter's condition is said to be hopeless. Near relatives have been told by the medical attendants that his passing is now merely a question of a short time.

NEWS OF THE PACIFIC SLOPE

RUEF LOSES THREE POINTS.

Es-Boss's Defenses Damaged by Courts.

Actual Trial in Sight After Long Fight.

Judge Declares Immunity Contract Illegal.

STANFORD, April 1.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Ruef, against whom more than 100 indictments, charging bribery of the former Board of Supervisors have been returned, and whose preliminary hearing was postponed to avoid trial, has kept some of the courts occupied for two months, sustained three adverse rulings today, one in the Superior and two in the Appellate Court.

Judge Maurice T. Dooling of San Benito county, requested by Judge Frank H. Dunne to preside in the latter's department of the Superior Court in the trial of Ruef, transferred the case to another court, and refused to make an order upon the showing of the defense, disqualifying himself, ruling that he was not competent to preside, and that he was qualified to sit in the trial.

The District Court of Appeals later in the afternoon denied Ruef's petition for a writ of prohibition restraining Judge Dooling from proceeding with the trial on the ground of alleged disqualification, and also refused to grant his petition for a writ of mandate compelling Judge Dooling to transfer the case to some other department of the Superior Court.

THE TECHNICALITIES AT END.

Henry Ach and Frank J. Murphy, counsel for Ruef, have made a strong technical fight for two months to prevent Ruef's trial, and have been unsuccessful in closing Judge Lawlor's department of the Superior Court with an avalanche of affidavits bearing upon the technicalities of the prosecution.

So numerous and voluminous were the affidavits of both sides that Judge Lawlor has not yet been able to read them and render his decision.

With the rulings today, Ruef's defense, the preliminary defensive resources of Ruef's counsel, and the actual trial of the many-times-indicted politician, who has now been in custody one year, appears to be within sight.

Immediately upon Judge Dooling's ruling, Ruef's counsel sought to introduce the mass of evidentiary evidence made upon that point before Judge Lawlor, Judge Dooling, however, refused to receive the affidavits, and made his position on the question very clear in his ruling, that the contract was unknown to the law, that it was not enforceable, and that if such a contract was in force, the defendant must rely upon the one faith of the prosecution and upon the competency of the court to consider it.

TO CITE AUTHORITIES.

While Judge Dooling refused to receive this time any affidavits bearing upon the existence of such a contract between Ruef and the prosecution, he was willing to give the defense an opportunity to cite authorities upon the question whether Ruef could claim any legal relief by reason of his reliance upon the promise of immunity made by the prosecution.

Should the court hold, as it intimated today that it would hold, that the immunity contract and its repudiation by the prosecution has no legal bearing upon the case at issue, Ruef's defense works would practically be swept away and his trial follow.

In Judge Lawlor's court, Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroad; T. L. Ford, general counsel for the same corporation, and Ruef were arraigned upon the three joint indictments returned by the grand jury last week, charging them with offering a bribe. The indictments are duplicates of others returned by the previous grand jury, but drawn up with a view of avoiding some of the technical objections that have been raised.

The pleading of the three joint defendants was continued until Friday afternoon.

JUDGES' AFFIDAVITS.

The remainder of the day in that department was occupied with argument and motions to strike out portions of the affidavits filed by the defense, seeking to disqualify Judge Lawlor from presiding at the trial of Ruef.

Counter affidavits by Judge Dunne and Judge Dooling in reply to the affidavits of Ruef's counsel, and Judge Dooling from presiding at his trial were read in Department Six of the Superior Court.

Judge Dunne in his affidavit averred that he had never discussed Ruef's case with Judge Dooling and that the latter had never said anything to him that would lead any person to believe that he had any ill will, bias, or prejudice against Ruef.

Referring to the civil suit brought by Ruef against the prosecution, including Judge Dunne, for the recovery of over $4000 paid by himself for his private incarceration in charge of an affidavit of Ruef's counsel, Judge Dunne averred that he believed that Ruef brought the action in "bad faith, for purpose of delaying and defeating the due administration of the law," and that it was merely filed to harass the affiant and the members of the prosecution.

Judge Dooling stated in his affidavit that he has no ill will or prejudice against Ruef and declares that he is all respects qualified to preside at the defendant's trial and that Ruef will have a fair and impartial trial.

Justice Dooling admitted that he made the remark quoted in Ruef's affidavit that "inasmuch as the Supreme Court had decided that the industry of the defendant was engaged in law, the extortion indicted against him would in due course have to be dismissed."

DENIES SARCASM.

The judge, however, denied that the remark was made sarcastically or in "other than a proper conversational tone," and merely for the purpose of expressing his belief that the indictment against Ruef was not a valid one, and therefore, his remark, averred Judge Dooling, was not in-

MORE TROUBLE AT STANFORD.

Ninety-one Students Declared Suspended for Refusing to Be Vaccinated.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 1.—Ninety-one men were today declared suspended for ten days from April 6, for failure to comply with the recent order, making vaccination compulsory.

If this regulation is enforced it probably will seriously interfere with the baseball team, none of whom have yet been vaccinated. Three of the crew have been vaccinated, but the others have not yet done so.

Suspension for ten days at this time would amount to "kunk" a student at the end of the semester, as there would not be time to make up the lost work.

It was indicated by the disagreement with the Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court in regard to the sufficiency of the indictment, however, that the defendant did then, and still does, disagree with said Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court in its opinion and conclusion of law as to the sufficiency of the indictment.

Judge Dooling admitted that he was a personal friend of Judge Dunne, but denied that the latter had engendered in his mind any malice, hatred, bias or prejudice against Ruef. In regard to the expulsion of Ruef from the order of the Native Sons of the Golden West, Judge Dooling averred that he acted solely in pursuance of his duty as Grand President of the order in appointing an investigating committee, which recommended that Ruef be expelled.

When the reading of the affidavits had been concluded, Henry Ach, leading counsel for Ruef, arose and made about thirty specific motions to strike out portions of Judge Dunne's affidavit. Judge Dooling denied all but two. The two that he granted were Judge Dunne's request that he "knows" and Judge Dooling to be a fair and impartial judge, and that "it is affiant's opinion that the defendant can have a fair and impartial trial before said Dooling."

Ach's request to place Judge Dunne and Judge Jacob Nieto on the stand for cross-examination was denied, as was also permission to cross-examine the court.

FOUR BANK DISTRICTS.

STATE TO BE DIVIDED.

STAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Bank Commissioners Garoute, Lynch, Sher and Vawter have finally decided to divide the State into four districts, for the purpose of having examination of banks more complete and thorough than heretofore.

This is a suggestion given them by Governor Hiram Johnson, and one which after much deliberation met with their approval. It is the intention to place a district in charge of each of the four commissioners, and hold each one primarily responsible for the correct examination of all banks in his district.

The commissioners are to put this plan into effect at the end of the present fiscal year. They expect to make necessary changes in the State banking laws.

OVERCOME IN FATAL MINE.

Seven of Party Trying to Remove Bodies from Slope Fall Unconscious.

STAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—A mine disaster at Hanna (Wyo.) April 1.—East slope of the Union Pacific Coal Company's No. 1 mine, in which two disastrous explosions occurred Saturday, was opened today, and seven of the fifteen men who entered the slope, preparatory to taking out some of the bodies, were overcome by gas.

Charles Higgins, assistant foreman of the Union Pacific mines at Hanna, and Will Tate, foreman of the mine, were the only two who escaped. The other seven were overcome by gas.

General Manager D. H. Clark, who, with Assistant J. J. Hart and E. Bradbury, personally directed operations, refused to permit any further efforts at the time toward taking out any bodies, and decided to wait until the next day for the gases to clear away.

The girls gathered just before dusk today to listen to the words of Rev. Charles R. Brown. A praise song was a fitting opening. Dr. Brown spoke of the scene in the upper room. "It was a time," he said, "when faith and hope and love were expressed in what we now call the 'Lord's Supper'."

"It was a time for more searching standards and for exalted fellowship."

DEFINITION OF BETRAYAL.

Dr. Brown gave this as a definition for betrayal.

"If there is that in your life which is destroying your capacity for a Christ-like life, that is betrayal of your Christ."

He closed with a plea for more time for quiet meditation, and urged that every Sabbath evening have in it the upper room experience.

"We are in the upper room here at Capitol," he said, "and we are in the walk toward the great future along the celebrated pine-bordered cliff path. The wild flowers of Capitol are in profusion in the great hotel today. There were poppies in the office and dining-room, while in the auditorium wild mustard and feyds added to the elaborate decorations. It is a time for the big trees which are the feyds and clusters of oranges."

Miss Wilbur has announced that the anticipated trip to the big trees will be taken tomorrow. Nearly 100 have already signed for the good time, and the picnic lunch is being prepared.

Southern people are glad to recall that Miss Wilbur, the conference leader, is a sister of Superior Judge Curtis D. Wilbur of Los Angeles, the popular judge of the Juvenile Court.

State Senate Carries Out Gov.
Hughes' Wishes.

Race Track Interests Try to Buy Several Votes.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
ALBANY (N. Y.), April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A vote of 25 to 22 the Senate today rejected the principal race-track reform bill to its original shape, thereby indicating the success of the recommendation of Gov. Hughes that betting on contests of speed between horses anywhere in the state be prohibited.

The vote was taken after ten hours of debate, during which the opponents of the race-track reform measures resorted to every legislative expedient to secure the necessary number of votes to compel the retention in the Assembly of the bill of the McCarran amendment, making the date of the operation of the bill September 1 instead of at once, as was provided in the original measure.

While the action of the Senate tonight is not final and decisive, it indicates the passage not only of the Assembly Code Bill, but the other two measures necessary for the accomplishment of the Governor's recommendation relating to race tracks. The opponents of the measures put up a spirited and strenuous fight, the brunt of the battle falling upon the shoulders of leaders McCarran and Grady, both Democrats.

In restoring the code bill to its original form the Senate also advanced to third reading, without debate, the bill amending the Percy-Gray law, which is rendered necessary in order to accomplish the intended reform.

Senator Agnew gave notice tonight that he would tomorrow move to substitute for his own the Hart bill, and put them on final passage. The motion will probably not succeed and the final vote will be deferred until next week.

The remaining race-track bill, that of an appropriation of $100,000 for a general fair association, to take the place of the amount now realized from the tax on the racing of race tracks, was reported by the Assembly Ways and Means Committee today and will probably be passed next week and will then be sent to the Senate.

It is reported tonight that Gov. Hughes may send in an emergency measure tomorrow certifying to the necessity for the immediate passage of the Hart bill, which are identical with the Agnew bill as restored by the Senate and which have already passed the Assembly.

This race-track interest from securing any more Republican votes. It is charged that the racing people offered a fortune to at least two Senators to desert the reform cause and supply the votes necessary to retain the McCarran amendment.

SPORT AT ARCADIA.

Cheap Fields of Plugs Run Around the Race Track for Benefit of the Bookmakers.

There were some more get-away plugs to win races at the Arcadia track yesterday, and the gambling sports had the time of their lives trying to pick the ones that might stagger in first. Of course, there was no class shown, for the seven races were all for cheap stakes that are only used enough, apparently, for securing to bet on. A fair-sized crowd of gamblers saw the run-arounds and there were no features, for few of the winners were worth the value of the purse they were running for.

As might have been expected, four outsiders won the first three races, managing to get in front in some manner. Two took the first two events, and then in the third and fourth came Bonnie Prince Charlie and La Chata, both at 7 to 1. The next winner was Audubon at 12 to 1, won from a long shot, and in the fifth and sixth came the winner of the final race was Bookmaker Barney Schreiber's nag, Al-him, at 12 to 1, who had just given him the first money by a nose. It was a bad collection of things to call races.

Results: Five and one-half furlongs, selling: Hinchey, 104 (Algarve), 8 to 1, won; Koenig, 104 (Lion), 10 to 1, second; Nun, 104 (Lion), 10 to 1, third; time, 1:07. OAKLAND RACING.

BURLEIGH FINISHES STRONG.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—In a spectacular finish, Burleigh captured the Los Gatos Handicap from Pajaroita at Emeryville today. The favorite, Pajaroita, led the winner 100 yards from the wire, but Burleigh, under a 5-1 edge ride by Jockey Miller, won the race by a head. Miller won three races today. Results:

POMONA HAS FAIR CHANCE.

Southern Athletes Are Ready for Berkeley.

Great Interest Centered in
Meet Tomorrow.

Hurdle Races and Mile Run
Will Be Features.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.
March 31.—Interest is at a high pitch at the university over the Pomona city track meet which will take place Friday afternoon. The contest was moved ahead one day, as the first baseball game of the intercollegiate series with Stanford will be held Saturday.

The Pomona club will have 100 runners on hand to support its men, and Pasadena Y.M.C.A. will send fifty enthusiasts. The San Pedro entries have until tonight to register.

The entries to date are as follows: Lightweights, O'Neill, Williams, Pasadena; Steeplechase, two and one-half miles, Hinkins, L.A.A.C. Middleweights, Hinkins, Stockman, Pasadena; Clymer, Santos, Jorgensen, L.A.A.C.

The Claremont men are in good condition with the exception of two or three, who are bothered with slight colds. They are looked upon as worthy competitors for the "varity men, and seldom has a contest other than with Stanford aroused so much interest among the students and alumni.

The hurdle races probably will be among the closest events of the meet. The race away from Clabouch and the sharp curve of the track around which the hurdles are run seems to be the best chance for the men should finish close together. However, the dopests concede first place to the Pomona stickler, Leon T. Shurtliff, speaking of the run last night, said that the failure was entirely due to a carter in driving, and he expected to carry out his attempt successfully this time.

The last twenty-four hours of the attempt, the car traveled 44½ miles making the average pace 13.5 miles per hour. To travel the distance there was used twenty-nine gallons of gasoline and twenty-three pints of cylinder oil. At the usual garage prices, this would cost $20.00, or a very small fraction more than two cents a mile.

Preliminary to the fencing tournament for the championship of the Los Angeles Athletic Club were held yesterday. The winners with the following: W. L. Hellauch and W. H. Gains. McKee is not expected to place in the 80-yard event.

The first two places in the high jump are conceded to Merriam and Munger of Pomona, and second place in the hammer throw and third place in the shot put should be annexed by the visitors.

Birdall or Merriam should get one of the places in the pole vault. The relay race will be taken by California without doubt if Stanton runs and if the team equals its past performance. The "varity men returned from their southern trip in good condition, and all are training hard in order to get in the best condition for the big meet with Stanford, April 13.

Although the Cardinals have run up higher scores in the preliminary meets, California students are figuring that the number of first places that each team will take will be about the same, and that the outcome of the meet will depend on second and third places. California expects to win the meet by annexing the larger number of small-point places.

Several of the condition are beginning to round into form and promise to be important factors in the big meet. The battery that is practicing hard for the first game of the intercollegiate series, which will be played Saturday, is the best high school team in the state, and the candidates for the vacancies are fighting hard.

POLY TO GO NORTH.
WILL SEND THREE MEN.
Polytechnic High School will send Robertson, Walberg and Rieckhauser to compete in the big intercollegiate track meet at Stanford the latter part of this month. If Los Angeles High School decides to send a team, the boys of both schools will go north together.

Robertson is the best High School 120-yard hurdler in the south, Rieckhauser has shown up well in the hammer throw, and Walberg came to the front as a high jumper in the conference meet, clearing the bar at 5 feet, 7 inches.

If the Los Angeles High team is sent north, the money to defray expenses will be raised by an athletic benefit entertainment, which the students will prepare and give in the school auditorium. However, as Poly will only send three men, the student body of control will contribute the money for their expenses.

The "Poly" boys are practicing daily for their dual meet with Pasadena High School next Saturday on Boyard Field. A special effort will be made to make a good showing in the relay race, as Pasadena outstripped the machinists in the County League meet.

NOVEL GOLF CONTEST.
Fair Members of Redlands Golf Club Will Meet-Play in Cup Contest Near End.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]
REDLANDS, April 1.—The ladies' approaching and putting contest will be held at the Country Club next Saturday. A special effort will be made to draw a large crowd of the golf enthusiasts of this section on account of its novelty and the social prominence of the contest.

The "Poly" boys are practicing daily for their dual meet with Pasadena High School next Saturday on Boyard Field. A special effort will be made to make a good showing in the relay race, as Pasadena outstripped the machinists in the County League meet.

WRESTLING ENTRIES.

Los Angeles Athletic Club Has Seven Representatives—Contests to Be at Y.M.C.A. Gym.

Thirteen entries have been received up to date for the wrestling tournament which will be held under the auspices of the A.A.U. Saturday night. The bouts will be at the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A. instead of Armory Hall, and the first event will be pulled off at 8 o'clock.

Great interest is manifested at the Los Angeles Athletic Club over the tournament. The club has entered seven men, and Pasadena Y.M.C.A. has entered six.

The local club is backing Woodruff to defeat Williams of Pasadena in the heavyweight division. Woodruff made good in the L.A.A.C. tournament last month and is confident of winning, but Williams is very fast and clever, and under the coaching of Braden has developed into a classy wrestler. Retzer of the L.A.A.C. and O'Neill of Pasadena will also meet in the lightweight department. The men will be evenly matched and both expect to take first honors.

The Pasadena men are counting on Stockman to defeat Jorgensen in the heavyweight division. The L.A.A.C. man has not had much experience at the game, but he has speed and endurance and is looked upon by his supporters as one of the best heavyweights on the Coast.

The Pasadena club will have 100 runners on hand to support its men, and Pasadena Y.M.C.A. will send fifty enthusiasts. The San Pedro entries have until tonight to register.

The Claremont men are in good condition with the exception of two or three, who are bothered with slight colds. They are looked upon as worthy competitors for the "varity men, and seldom has a contest other than with Stanford aroused so much interest among the students and alumni.

The hurdle races probably will be among the closest events of the meet. The race away from Clabouch and the sharp curve of the track around which the hurdles are run seems to be the best chance for the men should finish close together. However, the dopests concede first place to the Pomona stickler, Leon T. Shurtliff, speaking of the run last night, said that the failure was entirely due to a carter in driving, and he expected to carry out his attempt successfully this time.

The last twenty-four hours of the attempt, the car traveled 44½ miles making the average pace 13.5 miles per hour. To travel the distance there was used twenty-nine gallons of gasoline and twenty-three pints of cylinder oil. At the usual garage prices, this would cost $20.00, or a very small fraction more than two cents a mile.

Preliminary to the fencing tournament for the championship of the Los Angeles Athletic Club were held yesterday. The winners with the following: W. L. Hellauch and W. H. Gains. McKee is not expected to place in the 80-yard event.

The first two places in the high jump are conceded to Merriam and Munger of Pomona, and second place in the hammer throw and third place in the shot put should be annexed by the visitors.

Birdall or Merriam should get one of the places in the pole vault. The relay race will be taken by California without doubt if Stanton runs and if the team equals its past performance. The "varity men returned from their southern trip in good condition, and all are training hard in order to get in the best condition for the big meet with Stanford, April 13.

Although the Cardinals have run up higher scores in the preliminary meets, California students are figuring that the number of first places that each team will take will be about the same, and that the outcome of the meet will depend on second and third places. California expects to win the meet by annexing the larger number of small-point places.

Several of the condition are beginning to round into form and promise to be important factors in the big meet. The battery that is practicing hard for the first game of the intercollegiate series, which will be played Saturday, is the best high school team in the state, and the candidates for the vacancies are fighting hard.

POLY TO GO NORTH.
WILL SEND THREE MEN.
Polytechnic High School will send Robertson, Walberg and Rieckhauser to compete in the big intercollegiate track meet at Stanford the latter part of this month. If Los Angeles High School decides to send a team, the boys of both schools will go north together.

Robertson is the best High School 120-yard hurdler in the south, Rieckhauser has shown up well in the hammer throw, and Walberg came to the front as a high jumper in the conference meet, clearing the bar at 5 feet, 7 inches.

If the Los Angeles High team is sent north, the money to defray expenses will be raised by an athletic benefit entertainment, which the students will prepare and give in the school auditorium. However, as Poly will only send three men, the student body of control will contribute the money for their expenses.

The "Poly" boys are practicing daily for their dual meet with Pasadena High School next Saturday on Boyard Field. A special effort will be made to make a good showing in the relay race, as Pasadena outstripped the machinists in the County League meet.

NOVEL GOLF CONTEST.
Fair Members of Redlands Golf Club Will Meet-Play in Cup Contest Near End.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]
REDLANDS, April 1.—The ladies' approaching and putting contest will be held at the Country Club next Saturday. A special effort will be made to draw a large crowd of the golf enthusiasts of this section on account of its novelty and the social prominence of the contest.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

"Hell's Half Acre"

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Cook's Misfortune.

Mrs. Louise Frederick, a pastry cook in the Godfrey restaurant at No. 412 South Spring street, was painfully burned on the face and hands and sustained a deep laceration over the left eye, when a gas stove exploded, yesterday morning.

Dead in Pennsylvania.

The police last night received a telegram from Athens, Pa., saying that Harry Schalk, supposed to be a resident of this city, is dead there. Schalk is described as about 30 years old, 5 feet 9 inches tall, and weighs 140 pounds.

Fireman Recovering.

Green Lamb, the fireman who was injured Tuesday by falling through the pole hole at the house of Engine Company No. 7 at Seventh street and Santa Fe avenue, is thought to be out of danger. He is at the Emergency and General Hospital.

Hollywood Club.

One hundred and fifty members and friends of the Hollywood Club had a jolly banquet last evening at Levy's. It was a purely social affair, and scores of these present contributing brief after-dinner speeches and stories. The club is a very active organization and there was great enthusiasm at the function.

For Poly High.

Under the auspices of the board of control of the student body of Polytechnic High School, Montville Flowers will give a dramatic interpretation of Ben Hur Friday night in the school auditorium. The proceeds of the entertainment will be applied to the student body treasury.

Legacy for Twins.

An estate in Germany has been left to two twin girls born in Los Angeles on December 4, 1885, to Charles T. and Augusta Ann. The girls, who are made by C. W. Fleming, manager of the American Type Foundry Company, No. 121 North Broadway, to locate the young heirs.

April Weather.

A summary of the records of the local branch of the United States Weather Bureau for April for the past thirty years, shows a mean temperature of 60 deg. The average precipitation for the month was 1.07 inches. The average number of clear days was twelve and of partly cloudy days twelve. The prevailing winds were from the west with an average hourly velocity of five miles. The highest velocity was forty-two miles from the west, April 12, 1883.

No Murder Done.

Workmen dug up a skeleton near the grounds of the Main-street school, last evening. Many people heard about it and telephoned the coroner's office for information regarding the ghastly find. The police, too, investigated. The bones are in the possession of the principal of the school, Miss Grace Finney. She says they once formed part of a coroner. The police and the coroner's deputies feel rather aggrieved and suspect that they are victims of an April Fool joke.

"War of Roses" on.

The War of the Roses began with a whoop yesterday at the rooms of the Y.W.C.A.—the beginning of a campaign for new members. All the members who will take part in the coming contest were duly marshaled with defiant war cries. Miss Rosa Gladys DeWitt the Red. Miss Rosa addressed a challenging speech to the enemy, to which Miss DeWitt responded gleefully. The contest will last a month.

Elks Install.

The Los Angeles Lodge of Elks held its installation of officers last night in the presence of several hundred members. Will D. Stephens, retiring exalted ruler, who is a delegate to the grand lodge which convenes at Dallas, was presented with a handsome diamond ring. The following officers were installed: Exalted Ruler, M. J. McGarry; Esteemed Leading Knight, Leo V. Youngworth; Esteemed Leading Knight, Walter J. Goldenstein; Esteemed Leading Knight, Edmund B. Drake; Secretary, M. J. Conway; Treasurer, Tracy Q. Hall; Tyler, Guy Yonkin; Trustees, C. M. Benbrook.

BREVITIES.

Sunday Real Estate Liners. Classified real estate advertisements for insertion in THE SUNDAY TIMES must be in the office not later than 10:30 o'clock Saturday night. Other "want" advertisements for Sunday insertion taken over the counter until 11:30 p.m. The great volume of liners printed in THE Sunday Times, numbering regularly over 5000 separate announcements, makes this regulation absolutely necessary in order to get the big Sunday issue out on time.

WOODMEN IN CONVENTION.

Large Class Initiated—Banquet and Dinner at Whittier College.

Debt and Get Land.

WHITTIER, April 1.—With banners flying and bands playing, the Los Angeles county Modern Woodmen of America held their regional drill this evening, fully 300 uniformed members being in line. Six hundred visitors attended the convention of the order. The degree of adoption was "worked" for a large class. A banquet followed, at which nineteen camps were represented. The membership of the order in this county has reached 5715. The following delegates to the State convention were elected: J. H. Myrick, Pasadena; D. H. Briggs, Whittier; W. H. McLaughlin, Los Angeles; C. A. Hamlin, Los Angeles; Dr. Allen, Los Angeles; John W. Kirkby, Los Angeles; Chas. Elder, Los Angeles; Geo. W. Dusenbury, Los Angeles; Geo. Sanford, South Pasadena; Dr. Allen, Los Angeles; John W. Kirkby, Los Angeles; Chas. Elder, Los Angeles; Geo. W. Dusenbury, Los Angeles; Geo. Sanford, South Pasadena.

COLLEGE OUT OF DEBT.

At a rousing meeting at Friends Church, Monday evening, the floating indebtedness on Whittier College, amounting to $12,000, was entirely canceled. This was the result of much hard work on the part of the friends of the institution. Mrs. Chas. E. Tebbetts having had charge of the financial campaign. Some time ago Washington Hadley, the banker, who has given $20,000 to endow the college, and an adjoining strip of land to the school. It is thought that the college is worth fully $15,000. Rev. and Mrs. Tebbetts announced their determination to set apart their beautiful family home as a gift to the college, as a memorial to their daughter, Clara, who died a month ago.

MINING EXCHANGE DISBANDED.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—After one year of fruitful existence, the San Francisco Mining Exchange today disbanded.

The San Francisco Mining Exchange was an outgrowth of the Francisco and Tonopah Mining Exchange, which was established during the height of the Tonopah discovery in the Tonopah district.

There is in the treasury of the organization approximately $16,000, and after the debts are paid it is calculated that each of the 110 members in good standing will receive $100.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The Gamut Club celebrated its fourth birthday last night. For so short a life, it has gathered a large family; more than 150 of its sons were clustered around the April Fool board, upon which tantalizing menus and little else were spread with fastidious care.

The dinner was real and satisfying, but practically little else followed it. Finman haddie, "mit citroen" sauce, proved to be a microscopic silver of dried shrimp with a lemon attached, on which was printed: "May this be the only one you eat!" The roast was a roast in dead earnest, in which every Gamut member was individually roasted, stuffed and browned with painful care. The dessert, "A la South-west," was wind, indeed—and then the "dinner" was over. Two members made it disagreeable, unbecoming the faint hint that something more substantial might follow after the better musical program was concluded.

This concert affair was very elaborate, and offered much that was novel. A base solo, "In Tiffin's Keller," was credited to "M. Pantano." Interpreted, this indicated Harley Hamilton and a double bass, from which he extricated a most delectable series of chords. A string quartet, by Signor Twilio, M. Corde, Herr Binfardere and Prince Heupergel, was exactly as advertised—four long strings hung carefully together. A piano solo by Signor Heupergel, "State of the Bologna conservatoire," failed to come off, as the piano wouldn't work when George Stetson attempted to man it.

The "mail" quartette was equally as much of a burlesque, as the four strings for the participants, Mrs. Postale and Postretrante, Herr Brief-Korfer and Sig. Carolino, were only four quiet, unassuming, mailing cards, backed to a piece of board.

Signor Stalacio, who was again the hard-worked Hamilton, in disguise, was unanswerable for a baritone solo. To keep faith he trotted out a brass baritone, upon which it is rumored that he once had some executive ability. By considerable puffing, he managed to extract the principal notes of the Toredor song, and the club joined in with gusto, the final result was not half bad.

There were other programs numbers, one or two of which are matters of some embarrassment in discussion before an assembly. "The Gamut," and in conclusion a good old Mayday work by a "symphony" orchestra.

Mary Shaw and Frank Pixley, who were the club's guests, were made honorary members, and both responded cleverly. Miss Shaw with a witty speech, and Pixley with an immense, funny original poem.

"The Gamut Club Occasional," an impromptu sheet, with a lot of ferns, boisterous inside, is said to owe chief authorship to Charles F. Edson.

The club received a fine lot of birthday gifts, including several pieces of bric-a-brac and substantial furniture, one or two specimens of statuary, some autographed photographs and two or three most unusual specimens of art work, from the hands of local painters of distinction.

Frank Richardson, who was with the Ulrich stock company two seasons ago, has rejoined it, and will be seen again next week, in "Caroline."

At the entertainment to be given under the auspices of the "Four Thumbs and Texas" Club and the United Daughters of the Confederacy, on Friday evening at the Woman's Club House, John C. Coyne, basso, will be heard. His numbers include, "Roll On, Thou Dark and Deep Blue Ocean," "Blocked in the Cradle of the Ocean."

Wilton Lackaye is due in Los Angeles in a few weeks, with his dramatization of "The Roadman."

Here Fischer has returned from the East, with his "The Great Chronicle," an improved form of the picture machine, which consists of a photographic and talking-machine reproduction at the same time. The phonographic attachment is electrical, attached to the moving-picture apparatus, and both are controlled by an intricate magnetic governor.

Fischer will install the first one here in about two weeks, and afterward place similar ones in San Francisco, Sacramento and Oakland.

The panoramic exhibit at the Grand-avenue rink opened with a large attendance last night, and will be continued throughout this month. It consists of an extensive series of models and paintings, representing the fleet in San Francisco Bay.

LIFE LACKS CHARMS.

SUICIDAL WAVE STRIKES TOWN.

TWO MEN DEAD; ANOTHER AND WOMEN MAY SUFFER.

Tragedies Take Place Within Three-Hour Period in Early Morning—Conspicuous Hangs Himself on Tree—Hollywood Expressman and Chorus Girl Use Guns.

Two men are dead and a man and woman probably fatally injured as a result of a wave of suicidal mania that struck Los Angeles early yesterday morning. The first day of April was no joke to the police surgeons and the coroner.

The body of Jacob Daum was found swinging from the limb of a tree several hundred feet from the Indian Crafts village, early in the morning. He was 41 years of age and well dressed in a black suit and fancy vest. He had been a sufferer from tuberculosis and the disease was far advanced.

He had carefully destroyed everything that might lead to "identification." A few keys, an old knife, and a small advertising card bearing the picture of a little girl were the only objects in his pocket.

He had been dead only a short time when found by W. H. McDougall of No. 1405 Mission Road. A detective was sent to investigate and cut down the body, which was taken to the Paul undertaking establishment. Later it was identified as that of Daum, a bartender, A. H. Salisbury, 50 years old, of No. 518 Carlton Way, Hollywood, who committed suicide shortly after daybreak. Dependent because of the illness of his wife, he had threatened to end his existence several times. Yesterday morning he went to the barn in the rear of his home presumably to harness a team of horses to his tractor, and was found by his wife in the act of hanging himself. He had been there only a few moments when his wife heard a shot. She found her husband lying on the floor, a smoking revolver clutched in his right hand and a wound in his breast. He died in her arms a few moments later. Judge Salisbury is prostrated and is under the care of physicians.

Yesterday afternoon, after an investigation by coroner Hartwell, a death certificate was signed. The body will be put in the form of a supplement. The coroner's inquest will be held after an early morning quarrel with his wife, L. H. Huff, 36 years of age, attempted suicide in his apartment at a rooming-house at No. 56 Towne avenue, by swallowing a large quantity of bichloride of mercury.

The sound of a fall caused the proprietor of the place to run to Huff's room. The man was lying on the floor in terrible agony. Efforts of physicians to save him were resisted. He is in a dangerous condition.

Alva McCook, a congress and a member of the chorus at the People's Theater, pinned a note upon the lapel of her jacket, bidding the crowd wait a last farewell, and then shot herself through the breast. This happened on Stephen-street about 2 o'clock in the morning. A pedestrian saw the act and ran to the woman's assistance. She begged to be allowed to die, announcing that her sweetheart did not love her. When she was operated upon at the Receiving Hospital, it was found that the bullet had ranged downward from her breast. It punctured her liver and came out at the groin. She was sent to the County Hospital, and it is reported that she has a chance of recovery.

Mrs. Sophie Miller of Bakersfield, who attempted suicide at a South Main street rooming-house last Friday, by shooting herself through the breast, is reported at the California Hospital to be improving. Her reconciliation with her husband, Walter Miller, who hurried to this city as soon as he heard of the tragedy, is said to have given her strength to ward off death. The bullet passed close to her heart and just missed her spine. Inability to secure work has not been responsible for any of the recent attempts at suicide. There were sixteen cases in March.

HOPES TO MEET PRESIDENT.

San Francisco Superior Judge Here.

Going East to Rest After Exhausting Circuit Cases.

Judge Dunne of the Superior Court of San Francisco, who presided over most of the graft cases, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon and registered at the Hotel Angelt. He is going East in search of health. He will visit New Orleans, Savannah, Charleston, Richmond, Washington and New York.

The judge carries letters of introduction to President Roosevelt and hopes to have the opportunity of presenting them. "I have been a Democrat all my life," he said, "and I don't think the President and I would have much to say to each other of a political nature. I should like to meet him, but not to discuss either politics or graft."

Judge Dunne leaves this morning for New Orleans.

Theodore Roosevelt!

The strongest life of President of the United States is truly portrayed in the artistic grouping of 36 likenesses of him, which will be put in the form of a supplement.

New Net Waists $5

Anybody who is "up" on the markets will tell you that nets have advanced in price. And anybody who's "up" on styles will tell you that net waists never were more popular than they are right now.

Such a combination doesn't ordinarily tend to produce "bargains"; we have some noteworthy ones, however, in white and ecru net waists, made over China silk; trimmed with Chantilly lace; kimono sleeves; in two or three different styles, to sell at the very low price of $5.00.

You'll want at least one for wear with Easter suits.

$5.00 SILK WAISTS $3.50.

Wonders of plain colored silk waists will be here in four today—brown, green, gray, cardinal, tan, navy or black silk waists, in half a yard, white lace yokes, soutache braid trimmings, in all sizes, $3.50.

60c and 75c Wool Challies 50c

You're not half so much interested in our reasons for selling new all-wool challies at fifty cents a yard, as you are in the fact that not a single piece in our whole splendid stock is reserved—all the pretty figures, dots, stripes, and plain colors as well as on sale.

Both French and American challies are included—all wool, every one of them—light grounds with dots and fancy figures—roses, buds, stripes, sprays, polka dots, etc., colored grounds—pink, gray, red, navy and black, and plain colors, too. Not a single old style—no silk stripes to rough up and wear out quickly; fresh, new 60c and 75c qualities on special sale today, Friday and Saturday for 50c.

At San Pedro: The first division consisting of Rear-Admiral Dewar's fleet, including the battleship USS Oregon, and the battleship USS Nevada, and the battleship USS Arizona.

At Long Beach: Second division, consisting of Rear-Admiral Dewar's fleet, including the battleship USS Oregon, and the battleship USS Nevada, and the battleship USS Arizona.

At Santa Monica Bay: Third division, consisting of Rear-Admiral Dewar's fleet, including the battleship USS Oregon, and the battleship USS Nevada, and the battleship USS Arizona.

At Redondo: Fourth division, consisting of Rear-Admiral Dewar's fleet, including the battleship USS Oregon, and the battleship USS Nevada, and the battleship USS Arizona.

Major Harper yesterday received word that the battleship fleet will divide as above on Sunday, April 6, after having remained intact at San Pedro since a 3 o'clock panic on the previous day. The information came in a letter from J. B. Elliott, secretary of the Los Angeles Fleet Committee.

The fleet executive staff recognized that everybody will want to get aboard the Connecticut, and desiring to prevent overcrowding on Evans's ship, desiring The Times to state the Connecticut differs in no way from four other ships of the fleet—Kearsarge, Vermont, Louisiana, and Minnesota. There will be nothing more to see the Connecticut than on the other ships of the fleet, and the fleet will be at San Pedro, excepting the Kearsarge, which will be at Venice.

In truth, at times it seemed to her as if she had passed merely from one bondage—from one form of dependence to another. This bondage was splendid enough—she was surrounded with every possible thing she wanted.

It was the magnificence of Harry's fortune and the gifts to her was still the theme for comment and amazement, but splendid as it was, it signified an intolerable bondage to Camilla. And the man himself had no idea of this.

It gave him such wonderful happiness to share his wealth with this woman.

In the days following immediately in their betrothal he had seemed to fly on air. It was absolutely the first time that the fact of his enormous wealth had given him a sense of relief or satisfaction.

He yearned over Camilla just as if he had been a child. He divested his heart, the purpose of his life, from all former channels, and he was now all his own. He was now all his own. He was now all his own.

He was now all his own. He was now all his own. He was now all his own. He was now all his own. He was now all his own.

amount named in the contract with the defendant.

FIGHT STOPPED. By stipulation of counsel, F. C. Wilkins's injunction suit against Chief of Police Kern and various city and county officials, as well as his $50,000 damage suit against the Evening News for alleged libel, was dismissed by Judge Conroy yesterday.

HORSE TRADE. Charged by John Forbes and B. D. Fox with obtaining money under false pretenses, Joseph V. Burns gave $1000 bail in Justice Summerfield's court yesterday and will be examined on April 13. The plaintiffs assert they paid Burns $72 for a horse that balked.

NEW TRIAL DENIED. Judge Monroe yesterday denied J. W. Ernest a new trial of his suit against J. W. McCauley and others to set aside a $1000 note, given in exchange for Gold King mining stock, which the defendant said, had been falsely represented.

REGISTRATION CASES. Judge Conroy yesterday continued until April 20 the second trial of Dennett Childs on a charge of illegal registration at Ocean Park. The defendants against Harry A. Thelan and Thomas R. Roberts, accused of the same offense, will be dismissed next Monday on motion of the District Attorney.

STONING CHARGED. Charles C. Kinsler gave a $1000 bond yesterday in Justice Pierce's court after arraignment of trespassing on the grounds of Theodore W. Hill with a stone at Puente Alto walls on April 23. He will be examined on April 13.

TO DISSOLVE BANK. The Crown City Savings Bank, the Crown City yesterday filed in the Superior Court a petition that the corporation be allowed to dissolve. It is stated that all obligations have been discharged.

STEALS BOA. Harry Jones yesterday was convicted of stealing Mrs. Bernice Morris's suitcase and fur box from her room at No. 620 Asuna street, and will be sentenced Saturday by Judge Smith.

SAGE CASE. At the defendant's request, Judge Conroy yesterday continued until April 10 the sentencing of former Deputy Coroner Clyde M. Sage, who pled guilty to the grand jury indictment charging him with making a false return of expenses to the county. The date of his trial on a second indictment charging him with stealing a diamond ring from the Oira Miller estate will be set on the date named.

IN THE POLICE COURTS.
Another Roster Case—Men Accused of Insulting Little Girls at Playground.

Roosters that spent a good portion of their time sitting on a fence and crowing loudly have twice caused the arrest of Carl Unger of Beaudry avenue.

Unger is a very light sleeper. When his patience was exhausted, he asked the police to silence the bird, which was owned by Mrs. Mary C. Thomas of No. 446 Beaudry avenue, but no action was taken.

That rooster died from a bullet, and Unger was arrested, Monday, on a warrant sworn to by Mrs. Thomas, and alleging malicious mischief. Justice Austin discharged the defendant.

Unger went to bed that night feeling happy, but suddenly he heard a crowing. Looking out of the window he saw three roosters, and felt that Mrs. Thomas had outwitted him.

Tuesday morning he made a wonderful contrivance of wagon-wheat spokes and barrel staves. Whenever the roosters crowed, he turned a crank, and the barrel staves spoiled the wagon spokes and made a noise that excited the neighbors.

Unger was again arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn to by Mrs. Thomas, who charges him with disturbing the peace.

Grave Charge.
Charged with making evil remarks in the hearing of little girls at the Violet street playground, Ernest Britt and John Christopher, both 20 years old, were arrested yesterday after a complaint had been filed against them in the Police Court.

Superintendent McCallan of the playground said that the young men had been ordered to leave the playground, and had refused to do so. The maximum penalty in the case is ninety days in jail, and Prosecuting Attorney Ford will ask the court to impose this sentence.

Barrel Thief Fined.
Robert Jacobson, who deals in junk and wreckage, was fined $25, with the alternative of spending twenty-five days in jail, after trial before Justice Chambers yesterday.

He was convicted of the theft of a barrel, valued at $1, from the Vehicle Company. The manager of the concern alleged that he sold barrels to Jacobson, and that he generally took one more than he paid for.

The fine was paid.

Some Mistaken Ideas About Business Property

A Few "Don'ts" and One "Do"—The Difference

FIRST of all, don't reach a conclusion until you have some dependable facts to base it upon.

The average rental return to the owners of Los Angeles business property is all the way from 10 to 20% per annum and sometimes 30% per annum on what the property actually cost them. In fact, in New York, in Chicago, in St. Louis, in Los Angeles, and in most of our growing cities, there are many owners of business property who get as much money every 12 months for rent as they actually paid for the ground they own.

When the statement is made that a piece of business property is only paying 4 to 5%, you can rest assured of one fact—that the owner has learned how rapidly the ground grows in value and therefore places a value on his property so high that the rental income is only 4 or 5% on what he believes it to be worth, while his actual income is probably somewhere from 8 to 12% on what it actually cost him.

It will be a rare case where this is untrue, and where it is not true, it is explained by the fact that the owner of the property built a monument instead of a business block and expended two or three times as much money in the improvements as he should have done. Even these monuments in the course of time come to be good paying investments, and thus is demonstrated again that business property is so good that it will finally overcome the mistakes of judgment in building.

It is a fact that in the Eastern cities business property is looked upon as so stable an investment, so desirable from the standpoint of safety of principal, certainty of income and persistency of growth in value of the ground, that people who understand it buy it freely on an interest basis at from 3 to 4%. In other words, in the speculation of large capitalists it ranks with Government and Municipal Bonds.

when measured from the standpoint of safety. These capitalists, however, understand perfectly when they buy on a 3 to 4% basis from rentals annually, still they get a persistent growth in ground value of 5 or 6% more.

...s, then, is the explanation of why business property in our cities is a peculiarly favorable investment. The man who buys business property, located in centers of our growing cities which is paying today from 6 to 7% net from rentals, and you can buy such property will, as interest rates lower and the Eastern basis of 3 or 4% earning power is applied to our Western properties, have a doubling of the value of his capital invested in such properties.

If a property that is earning 7% is sold on a 3½% basis, it brings just twice as much as it would bring on a 7% basis. Add to this the steady increase of value that arises from growth in population and you have the explanation of why the value of ground in the center of our principal commercial cities doubles every ten years, and this is a fact.

Don't try to prevent the owners of business property from realizing the earnings and profits above stated. You can't do it. The man who has something else to sell you can't do it. No one can do it.

Don't imagine that the national bankers of the United States have made bad investments because one-fifth of all their capital is invested in downtown business property. They know its value. They know its growth in value. They know its rent-paying ability or they wouldn't invest one dollar out of every five that they have in their business in downtown properties.

Don't imagine that the great life insurance companies who have over $100,000,000 invested in business property have made these investments without knowing how thoroughly se-

Paying Rent

One Out of Every Six Thousand Persons is an Owner of Business Property—Five Thousand, Nine Hundred and Ninety-Nine Pay Rent to One.

SHOPPING—buying the necessities of life, buying the pleasures of life, attending to the business of life, and wishing that tomorrow or next week or next month could be here today, is the avocation of the great numbers of people shown in the accompanying photographs of the busy streets of four of the vigorous, growing cities of the Pacific Coast.

The landlord's view, however, is different.

As the reader looks at these busy streets, if he is a business property landlord, he will realize that these people are all paying rent.

Out of every one hundred cents that changes hands in the stores fronting upon these streets and in the offices in these buildings, not less than one, and more often five to eight of the pennies are paid for rent.

The merchant is merely the cash register, collecting toll from the consumers to reimburse himself for the amount of money which he has advanced as rent to the landlord on the first day of the month.

The merchant does not pay the rent, the banker does not pay the rent; they merely advance it on the first of the month, and then in turn collect it from the great numbers of people who deal within the walls of these buildings.

Did it ever occur to you that you pay rent every time you buy a paper of pins?

Did it ever occur to you that as the number of people increases, so the volume of business of every merchant increases; and as the volume of business increases he is able to pay more rent; not only is he able to pay more rent, but he does pay more rent?

Following are instances of actual rental advances which show how the Business Property owner's income increases:

Did it ever occur to you that, as more people pay more rent, the landlord has more money, not at the end, but at the first day of the month?

Did it never occur to you that as the population increases—and the volume of business increases, and the landlord receives more rent, his ground becomes more valuable every year?

Did it ever occur to you that every man, woman and child living within one hundred—yes, two hundred miles of Los Angeles, pays rent on Los Angeles business property?

Did it never occur to you that every new home built south of the Tehachepi builds more value into the ground in the central business district of Los Angeles, because such homes contain an added group of rent payers?

Did it ever occur to you that a modern fireproof structure must be among the best of all investments—or they wouldn't be built?

Did you ever hear of an owner of a good downtown business property selling it and buying anything else in the world, or even loaning his money on mortgage?

Do you think it would be good business to refuse to own one of the buildings and the ground shown in these photographs, simply because you could not own the largest one of them, or two of them, or four of them, or eight of them, or all of them?

Don't you think it would be good business to own—free of encumbrance—one-half, or one-quarter, or one-tenth, or one-fiftieth of one of these Rent Paying Buildings and its ground increasing in value every year?

Do you think the people on these busy streets would stop their shopping and trading (rent-paying) if it should happen that you, together with four or five other people, should own one of the fireproof buildings shown in these photographs?

Do you think the street cars would stop running because the old order of things, whereby a single landlord for each property had passed away, and a number of landlords for each property had come to take his place?

Do you think your banker would refuse to receive on the first day of the month your deposit that you had derived from the rent of your share of one of these properties?

Do you think the charity association would refuse your contribution because each year it grew larger and larger as your rent from business property steadily increased?

Do you really believe that your heirs would be unhappy to find that you had left to them, each one separately, an unencumbered interest in one or two or three of these pieces of downtown business property?

Do you really seriously believe that it is a mistake to own such business property as is shown on these busy streets and in these growing cities, or did you never think of it at all; and why should you not take time to consider it?

The Trustee Company Closes an Important Transaction

Owners of the Union Trust Building Decide to Unitize—Unit Ownership of Business Property Receives Strong Indorsement

BY AGREEMENT, entered into on March 30th, the twelve-story, fireproof Union Trust Building, occupying the southeast corner of Spring and Fourth Streets, becomes Trustee property No. 2 in Los Angeles, and the Trustee Company has recorded its instruments, dividing it into Units in the same manner as it has divided Trustee Property No. 1, which is located on Broadway between Third and Fourth, and Trustee Property No. 2, which is located on Broadway between Fourth and Fifth, and known as the Broadway Central Building.

The building will still be known as the Union Trust Building, and the Union Trust Company will retain its interest, the only change being that instead of holding the title in the old form of single entity, the Union Trust Company will continue to hold their ownership, but in the divided or unit form.

The owners of the Union Trust Building have, after careful consideration, found that it would be a matter of very great advantage to them to hold their ownership in the divided or unit form employed by The Trustee Company, thus making it divisible and available for all commercial purposes.

The Trustee Company has taken over the active management, bringing the attention and services of its corps of specialists.

That this splendid property, being one of the best buildings located upon one of the best corners in the city of Los Angeles, and owned by some of the most able and conservative business men, should pass to The Trustee Company in this manner, is an exceedingly strong endorsement of this Company's methods of handling business property.

The Trustee Company of Los Angeles is the second company of its kind to be established in the United States, the unit ownership of business property having originated in Seattle, where the first company was established. The founders of the Seattle company established the Los Angeles company in 1905, since which time they have established The Trustee Company of Spokane and The Trustee Company of Portland. In all of these cities the business has developed with exceeding rapidity and satisfaction, until today there are in the four Pacific Coast cities ten of the largest and best business properties, aggregating in value about five and one-half million dollars, held under the unit ownership system and handled by The Trustee Companies.

This volume of business, the result of only four years' development in the four cities, demonstrates that units of business property as an investment are acceptable to and approved by the conservative investors; for without their approval no such volume of business could be accomplished.

The fact that the owners of the Union Trust Building continue to own the Units of the property makes the transaction one of special endorsement of The Trustee Company and its methods.

And you I was not an ad. writer, and I guess you believe it. The writer told me so, and said, "Let me write your ads. and I'll show you how to catch the people." I said, "No! This mine is honest, it has been conducted in honesty, and I am honest. That is all there is to it." The challenge any man to show that I have made one false statement. Another man—a stock seller—said to me, "Your stock is cheap, the people don't want a cheap stock." How funny!

this, that there has been bushels of stock sold in this county a share. True, it was worthless (not all of it), but of it? Nothing.

Watch tomorrow's ad. and see who the people are that are buying this cheap stock in other cities.

14 EVANS IN LOS ANGELES.

Evans only accentuated the warm smile of gladness. There was not a person in the crowd last evening who was not sure that Admiral Evans takes a keen delight in the city. As the coach was whisked out toward the Downey-avenue station, the admiral turned to the throng, smiling and waving his hand. That good-bye glance was the signal for renewed cheers. While the admiral was making himself agreeable with his face of sunshine turned to the throng, members of his party made strenuous efforts to keep everyone from him. The associates of the distinguished officer said he would have been glad to greet the callers, but he is under the orders of the physicians, and has been forbidden to exert himself too much. In the crowd were guests who would cure the admiral in a day, with their formulas all written out, and with various blanks handy. One endeavoring individual, beside whom the admiral looked robust, was most persistent. Could he but lay his hands on the admiral's joints, he said, they would come to life. The admiral held down the lid. A masseur proffered a letter consisting of ten pages of closely written footnotes. It was rejected at the door of the car. There was a rumor that the admiral would remain for a time at Arcadia station after his car was switched at the Downey-avenue cutoff. This caused a crowd to rush for the Southern Pacific station, only to be disappointed as the car left from River station.

ROYAL WELCOME. GETTING READY FOR THE FROLIC.

ADMIRAL STANDS TRIP WELL AND IS IN GOOD SPIRITS.

Shows Effects of Illness, Has to Be Carried from Tender to Private Car by Sailors, but is Pleased at Ease of Transfer—Gets Letter of Prizes from President.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—S.M.J. SAN DIEGO, April 1.—With her after fighting tops blackened by the dense coal smoke of fast steaming and with a twin-starred flag of blue floating from her main truck, the 18,000-ton battleship Connecticut, which pointed the way of the Atlantic fleet from Hampton Roads through the Straits of Magellan and on to Magdalena Bay, arrived off Coronado Beach today bringing Rear-Admiral Robley D. Evans, commander-in-chief, for a course of treatment at the hot mineral springs of California in the hope that he may sufficiently recover his health to be able to participate in some of the hospitable welcomes which have been arranged for the battleship and the various ports they are to visit. Rear-Admiral Evans was transferred to a private car which had been held here two days to await his coming, and left on the afternoon train for San Diego. He was accompanied by his staff, including his personal physician, Dr. J. H. McQuinn, and a number of other officers. In an interview given out here he expressed the hope that he would be benefited sufficiently to be able to take the effects of his intense suffering from rheumatism and admitted that at times the pain has been almost unbearable. He did not decide to leave the fleet until the surgeons practically ordered him to go, declaring that his rheumatism would not yield to treatment at sea. Rear-Admiral Evans boarded the ship to San Diego without apparent discomfort, sitting in the emergency cabin rigged upon the after bridge of the Connecticut during most of the voyage, which occupied approximately forty-eight hours.

FOR FROLIC AHEAD. Officers who accompanied him declared that the admiral's health had materially improved during his stay at Magdalena Bay. Speaking of his illness and his plans, Rear-Admiral Evans said to the Associated Press: "On the advice of my physicians I am going to Paso Robles springs for treatment. I am told that my rheumatism, which has been so long as to be almost unbearable, cannot be cured so long as I remain in sea air and aboard ship, where the necessary diet and treatment cannot be secured."

"It will be a keen disappointment to me if I am unable to be present at the various functions that have been planned, and unable to greet the kind friends on the Pacific Coast who have made such elaborate plans for my coming. But I must yield to the advice of my physicians, which is now so imperative. By doing so at once I may be able to regain my feet and take part in the festivities that have been so graciously planned."

"If I gain the anticipated benefit from the inland air and the waters of the springs, I shall be soon able to resume my duties, and the officers and men of the fleet in a frolic ashore, but from now on I will obey the doctors' orders, come what will."

THOMAS IN CHARGE. Accompanying Admiral Evans to Paso Robles was his son, Lieut. Frank Taylor Evans, of the navy, attached to the battleship Louisiana; Lieut. C. R. Train, flag lieutenant, and Post Assistant Surgeon P. E. McDonnell, Dr. J. H. McQuinn, and other members of the admiral's staff. The admiral will remain with him until he is able to rejoin the fleet. The flagship, under command of Capt. Hugo Osterhaus, returned to Magdalena Bay today. Admiral Evans is officially still in command of the fleet, not having been detached by departmental order. During his absence, Rear-Admiral Thomas, commanding the second division of the fleet, is the senior officer with the fleet, and will act as commander-in-chief of all matters immediately affecting the ships. He also will bring the fleet to San Diego, where Admiral Evans, according to present plans, hopes again to visit his flag on the Connecticut.

The early arrival of the Connecticut this morning was a distinct surprise, as the wireless reports indicated that she would not reach San Diego until late in the day. It was just after sunrise, however, when the white hull and the three buff funnels of the flagship were sighted around Point Loma, the promontory which juts out into the sea and marks the boundary line between the United States and Mexico. IN CITIZEN'S CLOTHES. Three quarters of an hour later the Connecticut had let her anchor in the shelter of Point Loma and just off the Hotel Del Coronado. The tender Yankton, which accompanied the fleet from the Atlantic and arrived here yesterday, put out of the harbor to meet the admiral and transfer him to the shore. The admiral was late in arising, however, and it was not until well toward noon that he was carried over the side of the Connecticut in an easy chair and placed in a

Dress Goods at Bargain Price
$1.50 and $2 Plain and Fancy Voiles

These handsome, popular materials are 44 inches wide. This extremely low price is possible only because of the special purchase by the New York office of nearly 3000 yards. These goods were imported by a prominent New York City firm for a Chicago customer, who afterwards was unable to accept the order. Our New York office purchased the entire lot at less than import cost. There are now handsome plaids in silk and wool voiles, plaids of silk overshot designs, in all the light colors. Figured silk and wool voiles; all wool voiles in plain colors; twine voiles and of none worth less than $1.50, while the majority of these goods were imported to sell at Special while they last Thursday, at 50c. See them in the window.

SANTA BARBARA PLANS.
Arrangements in Channel City for the Entertainment of the Men of the Fleet.

SANTA BARBARA, April 1.—This city is aglow with excitement over the preparations for the coming of the battleship fleet. According to the plans of the Civic League, perfected last night, there will be something doing all the time. The programme, in brief, follows:

Saturday, April 2—4 p.m., arrival of the fleet, to be followed by official call by the Mayor, Elmer J. Roeseke, and the officers of the Civic League. Sunday, April 3—Arrangements to be communicated later, but probably the day will be devoted to visiting the ships.

Monday, April 3—Morning, baseball and football tournament; afternoon, parade at 2 o'clock.

Tuesday, April 3—Morning, tennis and basketball tournament; afternoon, garden party tendered to the officers of the fleet by Rear-Admiral Rowman H. McCall, retired, of this city; navy field sports; evening, ball tendered to the officers of the fleet by Mr. and Mrs. William Miller Graham, at a cost of $10,000.

Wednesday, April 3—Morning, semi-finals, tennis and baseball; afternoon, finals, tennis and baseball; evening, dance of the flowers and bluejackets' ball at the Plaza del Mar.

Thursday, April 3—9 to 10 a.m., departure of the fleet.

POULTRY SHOW.
Santa Barbara's first annual poultry show will open tomorrow with over 300 coops full of blooded-stock of many breeds. The exhibition will include peacocks, ducks, pigeons and other birds. The fenders and poultrymen in the venture are practically all wealthy men. Several cups of the church, and eight rooms, each 18

$12.50 $8.50 Elegant Dress Hats . . . $3.95

100 Hats Less Than Half Price

As choice an assortment as we have this season, and that means a great deal. Styles for women and misses, for suit or dress wear; some with medium high crowns, close fitting shapes stylishly trimmed with finest French flowers, wings and feathers. The season's most desirable shapes and colors included. None in the lot worth less than $8.50. Special, Thursday only.

Live in a Church.
There is only one place in England, according to the Sunday Strand, where women actually live in the very church itself, with which they are connected. This is at St. Mary's Hospital, Chichester, where the ancient abbey or monastery was long ago partitioned out as a dwelling-place for eight old women, who thus receive free residences and pensions and reside in the very church itself. The Sunday Strand gives a picture which shows how their "houses" are relegated to the sides of what was formerly the central part of the church, whilst today this same space serves for a promenade and gossiping-spot for the old ladies in their leisure hours, and is much frequented by them.

So far back as 1488 there were eight small houses built from this middle part of the church, and eight rooms, each 18
